To whom it may concern:

I have been a resident here in the Estates since Sept. 1997.

It's time to go back to our normal meeting agenda.

According to TV statistics the covid cases in Cameron County were all re-vaccinated people.

It should have actual meetings - no more virtual ones.

All 7 members should ~~be~~ be in front of the owner. Each one should be called on by the president.

to report on their area of responsibility. Then the floor open to questions.

There should be no restrictions on freedom of speech.

Some examples:

① Mecca's treasurer's report should be a real report — telling all income and expenses. The bottom line should tell us how much money we have on hand. And hard copies should be available for anyone that wants one.

② There is a rumor

started that there was mold in the pool.

I want Jean to give a report in Nov. that that was not true or what was done to correct it.

③ A few years ago cameras were placed all around the estates. What is being done now—are they being monitored? By whom?

④ Have there been any break-ins... have the police been called for any crime in the estates?

There have been too many arbitrary rules put in that restrict over rights as owners.

We are not subjects of ruler, we are owners of a corporation with all the rights
and priviledges of owners.
This is a wonderful place to live - let's let it become that again.
Thank you for your consideration
